Topic

Stop hiring nurses!

Description

Hospitals are fighting an internal battle with employee turnover and burnout. How do we find a cure to this age-old problem that is not merely a temporary band-aid solution? Albert will examine this debilitating issue under the microscope and share the latest ground breaking research. Drawing from his two decades of expertise and experience, Albert will help redefine the way your organisation hires and retains staff. This interactive presentation is a must-listen for healthcare companies who want to have an engaged and resilient workforce.

Learning Objectives

1. Create a culture that transforms employees to become evangelists
2. Apply recruitment strategies to attract top talent
3. Implement new retention techniques to keep staff for life
